

Newfoundland and Labrador Community Heritage Success Stories Nomination Form

The Heritage Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador (HFNL), is collecting community heritage success stories from across Newfoundland and Labrador! These success stories could appear in upcoming publications, and is your chance to show off everything that your community has accomplished to the rest of the province!

To tell us about your success story, briefly answer the questions below. Be creative, and remember, a heritage success story could be about the preservation or reuse of significant local buildings, interpretive projects, creative partnerships, innovative museum exhibits or anything else – as long as it impacts preserving a historic place in a community in our province.

General Information:

1. Name of building/project. Remember, be creative!
2. Name of community.
3. Your name and position or involvement.
4. Your phone number and email.
5. Name(s) and phone number(s) for other important contacts, if applicable.

Project Information:

1. Briefly describe the project, where and when it took place, and how your community went about it. Photographs will enhance your nomination.
2. Tell us why the project was undertaken and who was involved.
3. What makes the project special?
4. Also let us know how it benefited your community, and any grants, funding, or fund-raising you used.
5. Is there anything else you think we should know about the project?

We'll contact communities with the most promising stories for further information. Send us your information today! Send your project information to Dale Jarvis, HFNL by June 1, 2007:
