Newfoundland
& Labrador

(St. John's, NL, July 24, 2009) - Doors Open Newfoundland and Labrador kicks off its 7th year this weekend in Bay Roberts and Placentia and The Heritage Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador is inviting you to participate.

This Sunday, July 26th, heritage sites in Placentia and Bay Roberts will be opening their doors to the public as part of "Doors Open" celebrations across Newfoundland and Labrador.

Local churches, archeological sites, art galleries, national historic sites, museums and heritage buildings will be open to visitors free of charge until 4 p.m. Take a day this weekend to learn about the history, people and places of Bay Roberts and Placentia during "Doors Open".

The fun begins at 10 a.m. Maps and information on the participating sites will be available in both communities. For more information, please visit www.doorsopendays.com

Other participating communities this year include Portugal Cove-St. Phillip's, Fogo, The Labrador Straits, Port Union, St. George's, Trinity Bight, Torbay and the City of St. John's.

The Heritage Foundation of Newfoundland is celebrating 25 years of promoting and protecting our province's unique built heritage and is the proud organizer of Doors Open Newfoundland and Labrador.
